

ANTICIPATION

2 Tim. 4:6-8

5/17/20

In the passage for today Paul shares with us the way he sees his impending death. It is inspiring and hope filled. Unless Jesus comes back first, all of us will find it applicable to ourselves.

I. Paul's comforting analysis when looking directly at his death. 6

- A. He believed his death was near. Note "already." (67 AD)
- B. He described his death in two ways:
 - 1. As an act of worship, "poured out."
 - 2. As beginning a trip, "departure."

II. Paul's calm assurance when looking backward at his life. 7

- A. He had fought for what really matters. Cf. 1 Tim. 1:18; 6:12
- B. He had completed his work. Cf. Acts 20:24
- C. He had continued to trust in and defend the faith.

III. Paul's confident anticipation when looking through death to what lay ahead. 8

- A. He knew that the Lord is a righteous judge.
-Whatever He does He does in accord with what is right, just.
- B. He knew the Lord would award him the crown of righteousness.
A crown for righteous living.
- C. He knew that the Lord would do this to all who love His appearing. What kind of people love or long for His appearing?

Are you longing for His appearing?
